

DIGITEL 2010

Welcome and Logistics Report

Wu-Yuin Hwang

Third International Conference on Digital Games and Intelligent Toy-Enhanced Learning

April 12-16, 2010; Kaohsiung, Taiwan

Sponsors

- IEEE Technical Committee on Learning Technology, IEEE Computer Society
- National Science Council, Taiwan
- International Collaboration on E-learning Project, Taiwan E-Learning and Digital Achieve Program(TELDAP)
- National Central University
- Kaohsiung city

The city : Kaohsiung

- Kaohsiung is a beautiful ocean city and also known as the "Harbour Capital" of Taiwan; it has always had a strong link with the ocean and maritime transportation.
- As known, Taipei 101 is the tallest and well-known symbol of Taiwan, besides Taipei, this year we would like all of you to experience different city, Kaohsiung.

Conference Venue

- Kaohsiung City is an industrial center, Taiwan. National Science and Technology Museum shows the theory and application of technology that fit the local industry needs.
- The industrialized communities may penetrate the culture and educational spirit.

Welcome all of you

- Wish all of you have a wonderful stay in Kaohsiung and let the beautiful scenery stimulate more new ideas for our future research.